August 2019 Issue

49th Dance-A-Rama
Hyatt Regency Birmingham, The Wynfrey Hotel
August 30 – September 1, 2019
Hoover, AL

As you read this copy of the Intercom, you will realize that the 49th DAR is less than one month away. Hoover Alabama is the location this year. This will be SSDUSA's first visit to Alabama.

Do you have your room reservation and registration for the DAR? The price to register goes up by $5.00 on August 7th. Of course, you can register when you get there.

We will have a Trail End Dance on Thursday August 29th, and Joe Goins and Tom Davis will be the callers to get the weekend started. They will be assisted by Robbie Carrington and Diane Martin-Hamilton doing Round and Line dances. On Friday, we will add two other callers, Gene Aldridge and Greg Hatmaker. Both are good callers but have club dances on Thursday evening.

Tours: Due to low numbers we cancelled the Friday and Saturday tours. We will still have the Thursday tour and the "Mystery" tour on Sunday morning, so "Buy your ticket, get on the bus and see where we go." I can't tell you where, because it is a Mystery to even me! This is the one tour you don't want to miss as it has proven to be a lot of fun.

Plan time to come to Hoover and join us in a "square." We will all have a Great time!

We are still looking for a Host for our 50th DAR. Please, contact any of the SSDUSA Board Members for instructions on hosting this Historic Dance.

Ron Holland – 49th DAR Chairman

We are excited to be Alabama Bound! The SSDUSA Board has been working hard to get things ready for your enjoyment. We are doing our part and now we need your support to make it a great event. We need your help to get the word out about the great dancing and all of the FUN we have at our Dance-A-Rama festivals. If you need any registration forms, please contact Ron Holland or me, and we will send them to you. Please register and make your hotel reservations ASAP. Pre-registering helps us plan a better event and guarantees you a room at the dance venue. To cut down on expenses, you may want to contact our roommate locator, Laurie Steward. The cost of the room is the same for one to four people. If for any reason you are not able to attend this year's DAR, please at least renew your membership by completing a membership application and paying the $6.00 annual dues.

Too few people signed up for the tours we had arranged for Friday and Saturday, so we had to cancel those two tours. However, we still have two great tours: the Changing Face of Birmingham on Thursday, Aug 29 and the Mystery Dangle Tour on Sunday, Sept 1.

Although the tour deadline has passed, we will continue to accept reservations for these two tours until the buses are filled. It would be a shame to come to Birmingham and not take the opportunity to see these local points of interest. Our Thursday tour will begin with a drive through Birmingham, as our tour guide points out sites of interest and tells us about the city's history. We will visit one of Birmingham's famous landmarks, The Original Peanut Depot, which opened in 1907. Now known as Alabama Peanut Company, the company roasts many pounds of peanuts each year including new flavors such as Salty Dill Pickle on Thursdays of each week. You may want to purchase some delicious roasted peanuts to carry back home....if they make it that far! We will see a short film and take a walking tour with narrative through Sloss Furnaces National Historical Landmark, the oldest preserved industrial plant of its kind in the world. I especially look forward to our included lunch at the Irondale Cafe, the Original Whistle-stop Café, which was made famous by Fannie Flagg in her book which was later made into the movie "Fried Green Tomatoes." We will ride through Redmont Historic District, where we can enjoy the beautiful architecture and gardens. We are to be back at the hotel at 4:30 PM, which will give us time to relax and get ready for the Trail-In Dance starting at 7:30 PM. Joe Goins and Tom Davis will be calling and Robbie Carrington and Diane Martin-Hamilton will be cueing the rounds. The dance locations for our annual mystery dangle dance on Sunday morning are, of course, a "mystery." Keep in mind that if you are into shopping, you can easily do so since our hotel is connected to a shopping center and just minutes from Riverchase Galleria, the largest enclosed shopping center in Alabama. It contains more than 150 stores with a food court for informal dining, plus several full service restaurants. It is good that we can park next to our hotel for free in the Riverchase Galleria parking lot.

Just look at what we have to offer! We have a great line up of callers and cuers. We have 4 different halls and none of the dancing will be on carpet. There will be square dancing programmed for you whether you dance Mainstream, Plus, DBD, A1 or A2. There will be rounds from levels II thru V or VI. Also, there will be line dancing. Programming will include sessions on Intro to Plus, Intro to DBD and Intro to Advance. All of the halls are on the same level, and staying at the host hotel will get you close to the action.

TREASURER'S COMMENTS

Just a reminder from your Treasurer/2019 DAR Registrar as you are registering for this year's Dance-A-Rama: Although the cutoff date to register for tours was July 20th, you can still sign up for the Changing Face of Birmingham on Thursday and our Mystery Dangle Tour on Sunday. Don't wait to sign up because once the buses are full, you could lose out. Unfortunately too few people signed up for our Friday and Saturday tours, and they have been cancelled.

Susan Lee, Treasurer

NEWS FROM NORTHEAST REGION

Greetings from The warm northeast. Cloverleaf squares has 51 people registered in our round dance waltz class this summer. Although they don't all come all the time, the majority do, including our young people from mainstream class who also stay for plus dancing lessons. All are doing great. July 27th Betsy and Roy Gotta will calling and cuing at our July fest. Betsy had a hip replaced and being the trooper she is will still be calling. Looking forward to Mike Sikorsky calling our dance in August. Hope all of you have registered for DAR over Labor Day in Hoover Alabama. Got some great tours going on. Moving back our Square dance home the end of August from the air-conditioned fire hall where dance in the summer. Well that's all from the northeast.

Nancy L. Mirabal, Regional Director

NEWS FROM NORTH CENTRAL EAST REGION

Velma and I enjoyed attending the 59th Ohio Dance Convention in May where we promoted our upcoming Dance-A-Rama in Alabama. Unfortunately, we had to cancel our arrangements to attend the 68th National Convention in Atlanta due to my fall from an exercise bicycle on May 15, which caused me to fracture a vertebra in my neck. I am now back home following stays in a hospital and a rehab facility. I am happy to finally be out of the neck brace I had to wear. Having missed out on the dancing and fun in Atlanta, I am especially looking forward to taking the trip south to Alabama to dance, see the sights, get together with old friends, and hopefully make new friends too.

There are several great opportunities for solo friendly dancing coming up in Central Ohio. On Sunday, August 25, Maple Leaf Squares is featuring National Caller Tony Oxendine at a special dance at the Granville High School Commons, 248 New Burg Street, Granville, OH from 3 to 6 PM. On August 23, Kristy Williams is to call and Chuck Berry is to cue at Bucks & Does Singles' Hawaiian Luau Dance. On September 6, Orbiting Squares will celebrate their 57th Anniversary with a dance featuring Tom Davis and Phyllis Burdette. On Friday, Sept 27, Bucks & Does will celebrate their 44th Anniversary with a dance featuring caller Homer Magnet and cuer Dave Blaskis. Dave was a 2019 Yellowrock Scholarship winner! Orbiting Squares' Chuck Wagon dance on October 4 will feature Tom Poe and Phyllis Burdette. Bucks & Does Singles and Orbiting Squares both dance on Fridays at the Gahanna Community Congregational Church, 470 Havens Corners Rd, Gahanna, OH. Time: 8 to 10:30 PM (Early rounds at 7:30 PM). For more information about all of these dances, go to www.ColumbusSquareDance.com.

We hope to see you at the 49th Dance-A-Rama festival in Alabama on Labor Day weekend!

Fred Moore, Regional Director

NEWS FROM SOUTH EAST REGION

I anticipate attending several dances in my region in the next month to include the Tennessee Convention in Gatlinburg on August 1–4, and Andiston, AL dance on August 23 – 24. Of course, I will be attending the Dance-A-Rama in Hoover, Alabama on Labor Day weekend.

Tours

Highlights of Birmingham – 9:00am to 4:30pm, Thursday, Aug. 29 ($??):

In the morning we ride into Birmingham and start with a brief walk around Railway Park, a 19 acre green space that celebrates the city's industrial and artistic heritage. Here we will learn about the origins of the city. Our next stops are to several sites important to the history of the American Civil Rights Movement: Kelly Ingram Park, the 16th Street Baptist Church, Dynamite Hill, and Bethel Baptist Church. Our lunch will be at Niki's West, which claims to be Birmingham's finest restaurant since 1957. In the afternoon we go to Sloss Furnaces, which was once the largest manufacturer of pig iron in the world. It stands today just as it did in the late 19th century, a monument to the Industrial Revolution. With its web of pipes and towering stoves, this unique National Historic Landmark provides visitors a glimpse into Birmingham's rich industrial heritage. Our next stop is the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, followed by an hour at the Birmingham Botanical Gardens. Price includes transportation, tour guide, and lunch.

Mountain Brook/Homewood/ Barber Museum/Booksmith Tour – 9:00am to 12:30pm, Friday, Aug 30 ($??):

We will drive through Mountain Brook and Homewood. (Mountain Brook was at one time the 8th wealthiest city in the US.) Next we visit the Barber Motorcycle Museum which is home to over 1,400 motorcycles that span over 100 years of production. More than 650 bikes can be seen on any given day! Our final stop is at Booksmith, a one of a kind bookstore in the world that only sells autographed copies of books. Price includes transportation and tour guide.

Arlington Antebellum House/Negro League Baseball Museum/Rickwood Field/Legion Field Tour – 9:30am to 12:30pm, Saturday, Aug 31 ($??):

We start our tour with a visit to Arlington Antebellum house, a small but well preserved home where an upper middle class family lived during the period leading up to the Civil War. The next stop is at the Negro League Baseball Museum. (Willy Mays played on their local Negro League Team.) The final stop is at Rickwood Field/Legion Field. (Rickwood is America's oldest baseball park.) Price includes transportation and tour guide.

Mystery Dangle Dance– 8:00am to 12:00pm, Sunday, Sept. 1 ($??):

WELCOME TO BIRMINGHAM: the largest city in Alabama. The metropolis of Birmingham accounts for approximately one quarter of the entire state's population. Its location at the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains and the crossroads of two railroads, made it a major industrial center of the southern United States. It's considered one of the country's most livable cities because of its contributions to medical research, service-based economy and lively downtown. It also features 99 historic neighborhoods often referred to as the cradle of the American Civil Rights Movement. With its vibrant history, beautiful scenery and temperate weather, there's plenty to see and do while visiting Birmingham.
