IN MEMORY OF PAT KENNEDY

Pat Kennedy passed away suddenly following a dance in Buffalo on the night of August 3rd.

Pat was the impression of the ideal "taw" for her popular square dance caller-husband, Don. She was everywhere at his side in all their many square dance contacts and activities in this area. She danced and helped those who danced with the same zeal and simplicity as she put forth in her gayety at after parties and after dance gatherings.

Pat leaves a family of four girls, ages from two years to thirteen.

When Pat departed from this earth-life, she removed with her the warmth of a friend, the grace of a lady.

CUES - n - CALLS

Chuck Priester

Square dancing can attract non-dancing couples because it requires no immediate dancing grace, no independent decision making, no second guessing on partner's part, provides progressive instruction and adequate room to dance in.

Getting the men to "try it on for size" is the greatest problem in recruitment. The club instructor takes it from there by teaching the language of square dancing, fostering enthusiasm and often helping develop a feeling for rhythm in people who had none before.

Dancer recruitment, begun in the Fall, is upon us again, but last year's effort is yet incomplete. Having kindled interest and briefly embraced newly indoctrinated dancers into our clubs, the club callers and seasoned dancers must now take over. Just as no novice golfer enters pro tournaments, no new dancer can perform with the confidence of a seasoned dancer. Confidence is born primarily through practice, positive encouragement and patience. Timidity which causes dancers to say, "I'm afraid I'll goof up a set", and "Somebody will get mad if I make a mistake" can only be overcome through club effort.

Callers can overcome the "summer vocabulary gap" and bring dancers back into the swing of things following a summer sabbatical by programming wisely. Their efforts are useless, however, if seasoned dancers remain aloof or absent early in the season. Nothing accelerates the gaining of confidence more than helping hands, smiling faces and encouraging words. Under stress, some few emotional individuals may speak out unthinkingly causing embarrassment to others.

To folks caught thusly, I plead with them to judge the activity by the many patient and pleasant individuals, not by the few who give in to a slip of the lip.

Square dancing is no different in this respect that any other social group numbering more than three. By mere dint of numbers we can limit our contact with people who appeal to us less and enjoy those who share our own views. You may try to keep competition out of square dancing but you can't take the competitive nature out of some people; yet, square dancing is people.

Take the CUE and heed the CALL to another season of western music. Encourage others to "PUT SOME LIFE INTO YOUR FUN BY SQUARE DANCING!"

INSTRUCTION CLASS SET FOR PENN YAN - Members of the Friendship Squares living in the Penn Yan area announce classes in Western square dancing will begin Oct. 3 at the Penn Yan Elementary School, 8:00. An open dance will be held there on September 26. Don Pratt will be the caller-instructor. For more information, contact Don Smith, 1186 E. Bluff Drive, Bluff Point, N. Y. 14417; or call Don Pratt at 467-0887.

A LETTER

I would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to the wonderful people in the Rochester area who were so kind and thoughtful to me and to my family after Pat's sudden passing.

Your sincere response, sympathy and prayers were a source of comfort at a time when it was deeply appreciated.

CALLERS, DANCERS PLAN MEMORIAL TO PAT

Various friends of Pat and Don Kennedy have completed plans to present a "Pat Kennedy Memorial Dance" in a heartfelt, sincere and understanding tribute to Pat who passed away so suddenly in early August.

The Memorial Dance will be held on Sunday, September 17, at the Genesee County Fairgrounds east of Batavia. The fair site is located on state Rte. 5, approximately 1/2 mile east of the intersection of Rte. 33 with Rte. 5. Time of the dance is 2:30 to 6:30.

Ken Anderson will serve as master of ceremonies and will assist scheduling all the western New York area callers who have responded to the invitation to participate. Callers from Rochester and Buffalo are expected to occupy most of the program.

The organizing committee invites all square dancers to participate in this memorial to a departed friend.

Donations will be accepted at the door.

PROMENADER is published monthly October thru September, except July and August. Sponsored by Rochester Area Federation of Western Round and Square Dance Clubs. Subscription rate is $1.50 per year, 10 issues.

REFLECTIONS ON THE 16th NATIONAL

For many months we were hesitant about signing up for the National. We heard rumors...it would be crowded...the dancing would be poor... we would be exposed to local callers. However, the urge to see for ourselves overwhelmed us and we were on our way.

As we unloaded in front of our hotel, we were met by committee members in patriotic square dance costumes (John said he never saw so much red, white and blue in one place as he did at the National), and cheery greetings to tell us that dancing started in 15 minutes. Hurry... change clothes...grab a bite to eat...and although not officially, the convention opened for us. Picturesque Les Gotcher, bubbly Buck Fish and peppy Herb Keyes kept things rollin' and rockin' till the late hours.

Air cooled buses shuttled between the hotels and the Philadelphia Civic Center which is a tremendous large complex providing eight rooms for simultaneous dancing, exhibition space and conference rooms where, by the way, we attended a seminar on games and stunts. Max Forsyth and Wally Schultz kept us fascinated for a couple of hours.

The sound was great, the dancing was greater, and the callers were the greatest! Among the many, many great callers were Johnny LeClair, Red Bates, Chip Hendrickson, Ernie Kinney, Hal Greenlee, Jerry Helt, Dick Jones, Curley Custer, C. G. Guest, Bob Osgood, Bob Dubree, Deuce Williams and many more.

The after parties were a real joy and the after after parties were hilarious. What stories we heard! Ask Bill Bibler what goes better with Coke! And, after the hilarity, we literally crawled into bed, tired and exhausted but exhilarated with the joy of square dancing.

We met many Rochesterians--the Biblers, Hamlins, Coles, Wolfes, Johnstons, Phillips, Moylans, Dells, Hasmans, Westwaters, Newton, Woodams, Jenkins, Ollerenshaws, Macombers, Betlems, Bruces and the Bakers. Forgive us if you were there and we didn't see you. We're sure they all enjoyed Philadelphia's hospitality as much as we did.

An account of the National could not go to press without a word on the nightly pageants. They were unique...the clogging squares, Bill Castner's Lemons, Limes and Oranges from California, the Michigan State University students and, above all, our own Teen Twirlers who gave a magnificent demonstration! Bouquets to the Westwaters and the Dells! Those grand marches by States were so thrilling...and when it all ended with "The Star Spangled Banner" I was covered with goose bumps.

Pepper Bibler and I were able to explore the fabric center on a long street of stores that sold nothing but yard goods on Philly's south side. How we shopped for bargains! And what we found, could be another whole story.

At any rate, we've relaxed a little and we're ready for Omaha! Maybe Seattle? but, more likely Louisville where it will be "Heavenly in '70.

Mike Foos tells us of the botanist who crossed an intersection with a convertible and got a blonde. * * *

Why is it that the girl with the prettiest legs is always the first to see the mouse?

What do you say to a friend to let him know you share his grief? What are the words -- the words to tell him you also feel a terrible emptiness?

Some of us, more eloquent than the rest, knew the words, were able to express what was in the hearts of us all.

Others could only grasp his hand, murmur "I'm sorry," and turn away, hoping this inadequate expression of our feelings would somehow be enough, that he would know what was left unspoken.

Don, all of us, the eloquent and the mute alike, miss Pat deeply. She was a part of us and we share your pain, your sorrow, your sense of loss.

Your friends, THE IRONDEQUOIT SQUARES.

Triggers

Can you hear that caller sounding off? The season's open again, COME ON all you square dancers, drop those summer "fill-ins" and head for the nearest set.

Triggers have a new "stompin'" ground this year. The Parkland School, 1010 English Road, between Mt. Read and Long Pond Roads. The fun starts around 8:00, Tuesday, Sept. 12. Let's break this new hall in right.

Hamlin Beach Park, scene of last year's successful gathering, is again the choice for the Triggers' annual picnic. Our "open door" is swinging wide to welcome all. Bring your own lunch, cook-out, or grub. Games for the kiddies, fun badges galore, and square dancing in the rough with Myron at his best. Call for reservation, 663-6701; donation $1.00 per family, Sept. 9, 10:00 AM to 3:30 PM.

Triggers want to join the other clubs in expressing their sympathy to Don Kennedy and family for the recent passing of his wife, Pat, who was well known and loved in square dancing. Also, Fran Morris on the passing of her mother this summer.

...Bob and Rose Kausch

Genesee Dancers

Star dust was sprinkled over all of us the night of the Trail End Dance. Amid the sparkle of that beautiful, romantic Italian garden, we danced to the touch of magic brought by Ken Anderson. This enchanting evening is now a lovely page in our memory book.

Many of you were away for a fun filled summer in spite of weeping skies. Some at Expo, the mountains, lakes, and trailer camps. Others, like Bill and Ann Uebelacker, stayed at a trailer camp and attended Expo. They visited Quebec City where they enjoyed watching square dancing. Ann said she could not remember enough of her French for dancing. This fall, Ann returns to Brockport for a brush-up in teaching.

Sadness crept into our summer. Our members send sincere sympathy to George and Una Shaw on the death of his mother. And to Charles and Marcia Taillie on the death of his brother, Henry. And to Don Kennedy on the death of his wife, Pat.

Joey Ransco spent a few days in the hospital for an ear operation.

Ed and Alice Jeffery flew to Florida for two weeks and enjoyed a square dance while there.

Our president, Bob Bourne and wife, Bernice, put in a swimming pool this summer. A good chance to earn a new badge.

So nice seeing some of you at the Pageant of Steam in Canandaigua. But am hoping to see all of you Sept. 14 for the dancing to the delightful calling of Don Duffin. Many shared our enjoyment at Peterboro. Don looked great and was feeling quite well.

Bring your friends to the dance Sept. 19 at Floyd Winslow School. Happy squares to you.
...Thelma and Ray Springett

Country Twirlers

Welcome back all you sun tanned and rested folks (well, maybe a few of you are sun tanned and rested). It's time to polish your dancing shoes for another season. We have a good dance schedule this year, including several national callers. Dick Leger will be here Sept. 23 so plan to attend.

On Sept. 9, our opening dance, club members are requested to invite prospective square dancers to attend. If you have not already submitted their names to us, please do so and we will be glad to send them an invitation.

The Pyritz and Predmores should be ready for the opening dance after spending a square dance week-end with Jim McQuade in Canada. For others like ourselves we may find we're quite rusty.

Don and Auldine Charles have been busy this summer. Their son graduated from college in June and was married July 1. We wish them much happiness.

Congratulations to Dick and Mary Blind who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in July and to Mable and Nile Hess who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in June.

...Herb and Dot Scheg

It's the little things that bother us,
and put us on the rack;
You can sit upon a mountain,
but you can't sit on a tack!

EKC-O Squares

Hi-Ho, PROMENADER!!! Are we ever glad to see you back! Now we can keep up with the activities of all the other clubs. A great many members of all the clubs joined us every week this summer in our air-conditioned hall. We had terrific turnouts, terrific callers and terrific fun. We were delighted to see you all, and hope you will visit us often.

Seems as tho we hardly had any summer to enjoy and here we are going into our Fall program already. Let's hope we have some nice hot weather first to "prepare" us. So many people went on so many trips, it is impossible to list them all. We hope you all had a wonderful summer. Kay Prosser and her daughter went to Germany for a month! That trip, we think, tops them all. Ye Olde Reporters didn't even get to Pittsford.

To those of you that may have been inconvenienced when our dance of July 26 was cancelled due to circumstances beyond our control, our sincere apologies. "Singin' Sam" Mitchell of Lansing could not be headed off in time--so, he made the trip. Drove right through Detroit during the height of the riots, and he inadvertently went through a barricade. By the time a soldier dashed off to stop him, he was too far in to turn back, so he was detoured around a building outside of which a tank was shooting real bullets! He was sure "shook up" when he arrived. He did not call for dancing, was hosted by the John Meunches. The Charlie Tuckers, the Don Weekes, and our President and his Lady all came down to soothe Sam. He left not quite as nervous as when he arrived. Bet he won't forget that EKC-O Square date for a long time!

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Don Kennedy family in their tragic loss. The thoughts and prayers of their many friends are with them in this time of sorrow.

...Mae and Harry Malley

Fiddle A Rounds

Were you among the lucky ones to view Howie DeGrave's prowess on water skis this summer? Congratulations, Howie! Do you think the rhythm, timing and grace you have developed from your dancing helped your performance?

Charlie and Perkie Tucker, Ed and Helen Principe, Howie and Dot DeGrave and Owen and Helen Whitehead participated in the Dance-A-Cade at Summit, Penn. this summer. Owen and Helen started out from home bright and early but got lost. When they spotted a sign, "Washington", they thought for a nerve-wracking instant, they were in D.C. instead of P.A.

We were delighted to receive a postcard from Jim and Maybelle Bushnell while they were abroad this summer. According to them, you haven't seen a "really big shew" until you've observed the mini-skirts of Paris.

In the following paragraph, no unpatriotism nor any disrespect to those involved in the original composition is intended. Perhaps those far-seeing gentlemen might even have smiled in approval on reading the following:

We the people of the round and square dance clubs of the Rochester area, "in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare" and secure the blessings of round and square dancing for ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish PROMENADER as our official publication, our news media, our common meeting ground for friendly assenting and dissenting, our medium of exchange of ideas for the betterment of all.

...Ray and Irene Callahan

Belles 'n Beaus

The Trail End Dance last May was a long time ago but certain memories linger on--Art Harris' calling, Bruce Shaw and the Little Squares, Ernie Johnston performing some amazing feats of magic, and later in the evening, Al Howe and his "uke" leading the group in a sing-for-all.

Participating in a square dance segment of the Rotary Show at Greece Olympia High School in June were the Brendels, Hughs, Huss', Maybees, Werners and Wolfendens.

Add Fran and Dave Melton to the list of Belles 'n Beaus seen at the National in Philly.

Chuck and Betty Selbert journeyed to Kirkwood Lodge for a fabulous S/D week. Kay Prosser and her daughter spent several weeks in Germany, visiting relatives and making interesting side trips.

Marilyn and Bill Walker were recently seen square dancing in some rather unusual attire in the wee hours of the morning, up north of the border in Canada.

Club dancing resumes on Monday, Sept. 18 for Belles 'n Beaus. Newcomers are welcome to attend the class beginning Wednesday, Sept. 13 at Craig Hill School.

We would like to add our sincere sympathy to Don Kennedy and his family on the untimely death of his wife, Pat. His loss is felt by all the dancers who knew her.

...Bob and Doris Decker

Boots 'n Slippers

The weatherman was certainly on our side this summer. He gave us beautifully cool Saturday nights for our Manitou dances, thus helping to make our summer season a great success.

Some of our members have been very busy this summer: the Birnies, the Paddisons and the Weishaupts have each become the parents of a bouncing, baby boy. We still have two to go--so, hurry up, girls, before my next deadline, please!

Our deepest sympathy to Athol Holmes on the death of her mother, and to Don Kennedy on his great loss.

Boots 'n Slippers' second annual campout was held in July at White Birches in Sodus. Mike Callahan called for the Saturday night dance. The dance was enjoyed both by the dancers and a very interested audience from the campgrounds.

Don't forget our open house dance Friday, Sept. 8, 8:30, at Merton Williams Junior High School, Mike Callahan calling.

...Irwin and Helen Davis

Swingin' Eights

This is being written at a cottage on a Maine Lake while the rest of the clan is out boating. Summer has gone all too fast, as usual. We hope that Swingin' Eights have enjoyed theirs as much as have the Knights.

Much of our summer leisure has been spent trail-oring with our Apache tent camper. Early in June, we ran into the Czerniaks at a campground near Bath, N. Y. Result: dancing "on the rocks" with a pair of congenial couples who were members of the Czerniaks' Airstream group. Lots of fun, but kind of rocky. We note that Bill Sanderson has had his pictures in the paper again, another promotion. If Bill keeps up this way, us girls may find ourselves do-si-doing with the chairman of the board.

Eve Alexander, our artist, won an award at this summer's Sidewalk Art Show downtown.

It would probably be wrong to suggest that the Eights have only one artist. After viewing the decorations for the Trail End Dance, we know that Iva Allen is an artist as well. Iva made similar adornments in white for the church wedding of her son this summer.

We are sorry to hear that Don Hicks was forced to spend a part of his summer in the hospital.

The club has lost two valued members of this year's class. Nancy and Dick Brown have moved to California where Dick will be working for an aircraft manufacturer in the Los Angeles area.

On August 4, Russ Jenkins addressed the Astronomy Section of the Rochester Academy of Science on the subject of "Satellites". Russ explained the how, where and why of artificial satellites and illustrated his talk with slides. He informs us there are now 1,200 or more "pieces of hardware" in orbit up there.

It is not too soon to start inviting friends and neighbors to attend the Open House dance on Sept. 16. No cost to anybody, just fun for all. ...Fish and Dick Knight

Rochester Rollaways

Rollaway members had a busy summer starting with trips to the National in Philadelphia for Ambrose and Dorothy Baker, the Bruces, Newtons, Biblers and Woodams.

Sue and Chick Wolfe, Nita and Bart Gould took off for the wilds of Colorado while Ronnie and Florian Czerniak headed for the wilds of Expo. John Hayford participated in two Star boat regattas, one in Toronto and one in Rochester. Any other Rollaway sailors?

Tuckers and Principes attended a round dance week in Pennsylvania. Muenchs and Youngs had a S/D vacation at Boyne Highlands in Michigan.

Several couples headed for the peace of an Adirondack lake including Norma and Don Weekes and Tip and Millie Costich.

Sounds as tho everyone should be ready to settle down for a quiet year of dancing while the sunburns fade. We're set to welcome Dewey Berry at our first dance Sept. 8.

Lima Grand Sqs.

Hi! I hope by the time this is published, the Lima Grand Squares will have regained two very nice couples whom we have missed this summer: Rita and Leo Leonard and Pat and Don Krieger.

It's kind of hard to come up with something interesting to read in the middle of September that is written in the middle of August. The things you do in the middle of August don't seem to have a relation to the things you do in the middle of September. Like water skiing, swimming, camping, vacationing, growing weeds and getting your nose sun burned. By the time you read this, it will be too late to have joined us at the Barn for the Hill Billie Night, the strawberry festival, the watermelon festival and the hot dog roast. We had a ball at all of them.

You are forcing me to think about the things to be done in the middle of September, like getting a new class started, getting those couples you haven't seen all summer back square dancing planning the social schedule for the Fall, getting the kids back to school (with shoes on).

Would like to say thank you to all the couples who danced with us at the Barn and the callers who called for us.

I think Lima needs a new correspondent -- any volunteers?

A birthday is the one time that every woman wants her past forgotten and her present remembered.

Friendship Sqs.

The square dance season will start Sept. 9 with the annual steak roast at the Henrietta Youth Cabin at 8:00. For reservations contact Royce and Shirley Louy at 331 Eaglehead Road, East Rochester, or call at 586-4055.

Our sympathy is extended to Don and Ann Brewer on the death of Ann's mother in England. And was visiting her mother at the time of death.

Beginners' lessons will start on Sept. 18 at Sherman School. Bring a friend.

We will be dancing at the Town Hall this year, every Saturday night.

Royce Louy went to New Jersey to insurance school for six weeks. He is now with Allstate Insurance Company.

Our caller has had a busy summer. He's been calling in Penn Yan, Cayuga State Park, Canandaigua's Pageant of Steam, and at Albion. Art Van Neel has put up a building at Bonnie Brae Camp in Prattsburg, N. Y. There are square dancing week-end planned for this Fall and next year.

Mike and Marge DuDash have been busy little beavers this summer. Holiday Hill has been dancing all summer with Don Pratt calling.

Get well wishes go to Whitey Meyers. Whitey was injured when buried by bricks.

TEEN TWIRLERS PERFORM AT NATIONAL

Rochester's Teen Twirlers performed before many of the 9,729 visiting dancers at the National Square Dance Convention in Philadelphia. The Teen group participated in the evening pageants performing various English and early American dances which portrayed the evolution of the present American square dance.

In addition, Waldo Westwater, one of the sponsors of the group, was honored by his being invited to serve as moderator for a panel discussion, "Teenager's Viewpoint on Square and Round Dancing".
