EDITOR'S NOTE:

Well folks, this is what's comming down....

Dear Friends,

So much newsy material has crossed my desk this month! Many exciting things are happening in our Rochester Square Dance Area. Trying to keep the beginner dancers, as well as the experienced dancers informed is quite a challenge this month. Hopefully we've succeeded in satisfying both.

The theme of levels seemed to present itself this month. I'm sure the experienced dancer will find meaty material here-in. Often, the first question out of a beginners square dancer's mouth is "What are levels"? Hope we've satisfied this question also. I sincerely hope you will derive as much enjoyment exploring the various levels or programs as we do.

We need your help.

There remains a chance that the Promenader can recover at least a portion of the funds that were mis-directed, but we need everyone's help. Between June 1, 1982 and January 4, 1983, some checks that were made out to the Promenader were deposited into the wrong bank. Please look over your checks and your club's checks that were made out to the Promenader. They should have been deposited into the Pavilion State Bank. (That's where the Promenader's account was.) A very noticable red stamp saying Pavilion State Bank on the back of the check will tell you at a glance that it was deposited correctly. If the Pavilion State Bank stamp is missing from the back of the check, would you please send the check to the PROMENADRR, 428 Johnson Road, Bergen, New York 14416.

When we receive these checks, they will be carefully handled and guarded. They will be returned to you as soon as we can get this matter resolved. (cash and checks made out to individuals will not be recoverable.)

Bob and I continue to put a lot of time and effort into this matter. We appreciate the overwhelming cooperation you all have given us. We're hoping to get this matter settled soon, so please look over any checks you may have. The bank requires us to show original checks. Copies will not do. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to call us at 716-494-2102.

1. Problem - Two large, yearly class - club dances scheduled on the same night.

Result - Neither dance is as successful as it should be and the class misses out on one of them. Hurt feelings.

2. Problem - National caller comes to town and three clubs hire him on successive nights.

Result - None do as well as they should have. Hurt feelings.

3. Problem - Cure dance is scheduled the same night as a club has a national caller featured.

Result - Neither dance is as successful as it should be. Hurt feelings.

SOLUTION: Special Events Calander, page 2 of each month's PROMENADER.

USE

1. Before scheduling any dance, even a regular club dance, check the Special Events Calander for conflicts on that date.

2. As soon as your Special Dance is scheduled, send it into the PROMENADER so it can be included in the next month's Special Events Calander. (Submit each dance on a separate 3X5 index card with "Special Events" written on it. Be sure to include all info.)

3. Submit these Special Dances as far in advance as possible. Let other clubs know of your Special Dance so they can make up their schedules. Submit your Special Dance a year or so before the dance.

ABUSE

1. Not listing a Special Dance. In order to have your Special Dance listed on the Special Events Calander, it must be submitted to the PROMENADER! (Preferably on a 3X5 index card with "Special Events" written on it.)

2. Not checking the Special Events Calander before scheduling a dance. How do you know that date isn't taken if you don't check?

3. Don't use the Special Events Calander for advertising. Truly, a club would not have more than three Special Dances a year! When lesser events are entered into the Special Events Calander the calander loses its effect. It becomes long, costly and meaningless.

4. A listing in the Special Events Calander does not guarantee you exclusive rights to that date. Another club is free to use that date, but that club knows it is competing with your Special Dance. (I find most clubs won't compete, but are glad to cooperate!)

FOR DANCE-O-RAMA

By the time you read this update on Dance-O-Rama, you should already have bought your ticket. But if you haven't, you can still buy them at the door at Brockport.

Dance-O-Rama 1983 features Bruce Busch, Ron Libby, Gene Trimmer and our own local caller, Bob Ellis. Rounds are by Hap and A.J. Wolcott and there will be a clogging hall under the direction of Jack Simmonds. Also a "Smooth Dancing" demo by Gene Trimmer - a really worthwhile presentation for new and 'seasoned' dancers.

We hope to see many new graduates and look for the veteran dancers as will in Brockport on May 7th.

RAF PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

As announced in last month's PROMENADER, the Federation established a Publicity Committee whose objective this year is to produce a TV commercial to help promote Square Dancing in the Greater Rochester Area. The commercial would run during August to supplement new dancer recruiting efforts.

The cost to produce a 30-second video tape commercial is approximately $350. Air time must be purchased as well. Costs for air times vary depending on the time of day, programming, etc. Although air time is less expensive in August, we must purchase as many separate time slots as possible for maximum effectiveness.

We have been encouraged by the positive reaction this proposal has received from the Square Dance community. Dancers were first made aware of this goal at the March 13th PROMENADER Benefit Dance, and $182 was donated that day. Since then, announcements have been made at some area clubs, and dancers have donated to support this proposal. To everyone who has contributed, THANK YOU. To those who have not yet done so, please consider the impact this project could have, and donate. We ask every club in the area to collect money at one of their dances during May if they have not already done so. If everyone donated one dollar, we could finance this project. This is a 'Dollar a dancer' effort. Donations may be sent to the RAF Publicity Committee, C/o The Shaws, 19 DaVinci Drive, Rochester, New York 14624.

In addition to producing and airing a TV commercial, the Publicity Committee will utilize as many forms of free advertising as possible. We plan to do whatever we can to promote the activity and make the public aware of it.

Please help. Many dance programs will be ending in a few weeks. If we are to help increase class sizes in September, we must have funds to act on this proposal.

Sincerely,
Shirley A. Shaw
Chairman of Rochester Area
Federation Publicity Comm.

SQUARE-DANCE LEVELS AND CALLERLAB

Callerlab is an organization that was formed in 1971 by a very small group of nationally-known and respected callers. It grew rapidly, and held its first International Convention in 1974. Its main purposes are to improve communications among square-dance callers and to correct what they saw to be harmful tendencies in square dancing. One of the problems was that every caller and his brother was writing new calls at a great rate, and teaching them to his dancers as "the latest thing" in dancing. By December 1972 there were 1540 (thats right, one thousand, five hundred and forty!) calls listed, and by December 1982 there were 3835. That's an increase of close to 130 calls each year, and all the Mainstream vocabulary is listed under 68 calls!

Callerlab's biggest job to date has been to try to make some sense out of this tremendous flood of "new" calls. They sorted out the calls, particularly the old and time-proven ones, into groups, and arranged the most usable of them in the order that they might best be taught. The first three of these groups are labeled Starting Basics, Extended Basics, and Mainstream. The calls up through the Mainstream list are what most new dancers in this area are supposed to learn before going to the regular club dances. After Mainstream comes the Plus series of calls, which was known as Plus One and Plus Two before 1982. For those who want to learn more calls there come next the Advanced-1 and Advanced-2 calls, and then Challenge-1, Challenge-2, and Challenge-3. Any dancer who wants to get into the Advanced and Challenge calls must figure on spending more than one or two nights a week on workshopping. Callerlab also periodically picks out a few "QS" or Quarterly Selection calls that a caller may try out on his dancers and find out how well they are liked.

The big advantage of having a standardized grouping of calls is that people from all over the square-dance world can dance together, with confidence that if a particular dance or club is labeled as Mainstream for instance, they all know the same calls and can dance together with minimum difficulty. At least they can if they have similar styling habits, which is another whole story by itself. The same thing holds for beginners' clubs or classes: if their teachers are teaching the calls in the same order and at the same rate, members of several classes can dance together at any time and all be familiar with the same set of calls.

And that brings us to Levels. The groups of calls, from Starting Basics to Mainstream to Challenge, are commonly called Levels of dancing. And the trouble with that is that the very word "level" implies that there are higher and lower levels, and everybody of course wants to be a "high level" dancer. "Dance Level" becomes confused with "Vocabulary Level," and it is an easy step to the conclusions that the way to become a better dancer is to learn the names of a lot more calls, and that a club labeled Mainstream Plus is a better club than one that is "only" Mainstream. Actually, these labels get abused quite a lot:-- the Callerlab definition of a Mainstream Plus club is one where the members know all of the Mainstream calls, all of the current Quarterly Selections, and all the calls on the Plus list, so a caller can use any and all of these calls without having to workshop any one of them. How many clubs do you know that can dance all of the variations of "And Roll," which is No. 2 on the Plus list?

Callerlab also recommends that new dancers should have 42 weekly sessions to learn the Mainstream vocabulary of calls, and then dance with these calls for a year before trying to learn more vocabulary. With that experience most will be ready to start on a new vocabulary level, if that fits their taste. Many dancers continue to workshop new calls and thoroughly enjoy the process, and there is certainly nothing wrong with that. If that is your thing, you should know that the further you go in vocabulary level, the more important it is to have a thorough understanding of all of the calls that come ahead of the ones you are learning.

If that is really not your dish of tea, neither is there anything to be ashamed of in not wanting to spend a lot of time in workshopping, but enjoying the dancing at the vocabulary level where you are and getting better acquainted with the calls that you have already learned. After all, isn't the question to be answered on the bottom line "How much fun and real satisfaction are you getting out of your square dancing," and not "How many calls do you know"?

Here is a quote from Jerry Schatzer, a California caller, in an article in Square Dance magazine for January 1982:

"There will always be an element, a segment of our dancing society, who will become primarily square puzzle-solvers, but that percentage of dancers is extremely small. I find that the vast majority of dancers, even at the Advanced and Challenge levels, still want to DANCE in time to the music. It's true that they demand more variety, both formation and basic-name variety, but even challenge dancers tire quickly of 'close-order-drill' type of choreography."

H. Orlo Hoadley

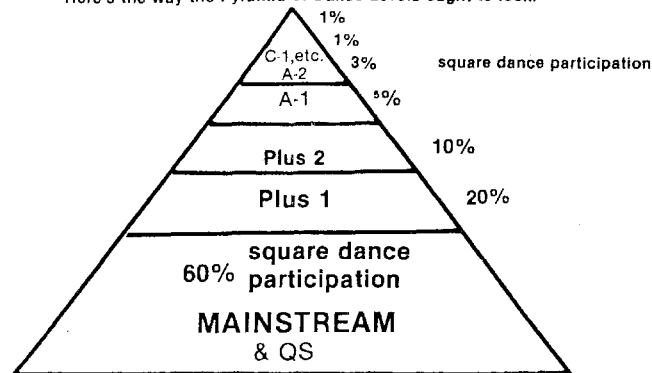

The difference between a high level and low level club: In a low level club, you walk through first and then try to dance. In a high level club, you try to dance first then you walk through.

THE MYSTERY OF THE PYRAMID

Belles & Beaus

The month of May finds us dancing down the home stretch. With many of our snowbirds returning we can really say spring is here. Glad to see you back.

May 9 is graduation day for the following class members:

Ron & Bev Acker	Doug & Ruth Rieger
Bob & Marion Cunningham	Emmett & Evelyn Rieger
Peter & Joan Damick	Bill & Isabel Rogers
Charles & Ceil Ewanow	Jon Wohlrab
Ray & Teresa Fredette	Pat Wallace
David & Kathryn Luckey	George & Carolyn Zoller
Carol & Louise Maier	George Pembroke
Guy & Nancy Rawlins	Mary Lorenzo

Congratulations to our class of 1983.

On May 11, we are holding an Open House. Anyone who would be interested in square dancing next year, come along. Art will get your toes to tapping and you will find it is as easy as pie. We would love to see you.

May 20 is our Trail End Dance at Three Acres Party House. The class and club will be getting together for an evening of fun, food and frolic. However, this does not end our activities for we have special events planned for June, July and August. Check this column for dates.

Our sympathy to the family of Jon Butler on the death of his mother.

This past month found two of our club members taking advantage of the Big Yellow Box's generous offer of early retirement. We hope that Don (Tiger) Smith and Dick Moore now have time to do all the things they always wanted to do. Happy retirement.

Rosemary & John Sage are the proud grandparents of a bouncing baby boy and Don & Dottie Adams are the proud grandparents of a little baby girl.

Until next month remember happiness is square dancing.

Boots n' Slippers

Our mystery dance took us to Bath, N.Y. and the Yellow Rock Ball.

Once again several of our dancers enjoyed the Prom-enading B's Black Light Dance.

Our regular dancing season is nearly over. By the time you read this it will be Dance-O-Rama time and hope we see you there. Our Mystery Dance was enjoyed by 13 couples traveling in motor homes to that "Mystery Spot". Thanks to Blair & Pat Johnson for planning that great trip, dinner and dance. Welcome to our new graduates: Bob & Dot Lovick, Bill & Cathy Wackerman, Phil & Dottie Evans, Bob & Margaret Engel, Mike & Jayne Gereg, BOB & Sylvia Kulwicki, Walt & Rita Penazek, Sharon Goodwin and Tom Trost. We wish them all many years of happy dancing. We are looking forward to our pig roast Trail End Dance on May 21st.

Cloverleaf Squares

Well, looks like spring has finally sprung here in Rochester. It's about time, but I guess we really can't complain.

First things first. Our April activity was miniature golf at the Putt Putt golf course on Ridge Road W. About 15 people went and after, everyone else found out what a great time we had, more wished they had come. Afterwards, we went out for pizza.

May 1 is the big night for Cloverleaf Squares class members. Graduation is to be held. I know I speak for the whole club, especially the class, when I say what a fantastic job Bill Saintey did as class representative. We thank him for his participation and enthusiasm.

A special treat we are going to have is that Mike and Linda Liberti are going to give round dance lessons to the club starting after graduation. It will be for one hour just before our regular dancing. I know a lot of people will participate and I also know it will be the 2nd or 3rd time through them for other people.

Cloverleaf's big event is coming up in June. On June 5, we present Ron Libby in Summer Showcase. It's from 7:30 - 10:30 at the Redmen's Club on Lexington Ave. Mike Callahan will be assisting as Mike & Linda Liberti will be cueing rounds. Sure hope a lot of people come. It really is a great time for beginners as well as the advanced.

Well, until next time, happy dancing.

Country Dancers

Country Dancers welcomes class members to join in our Thursday dances. Contra dancing should be a part of each square dancers experience -- so says Callerlab. Rochester is lucky to have a "country dance" group meeting each week throughout the year. There is no dress code--wear whatever is comfortable--but do wear your square dance shoes.

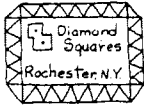

For those of you going to the National Square Dance Convention, please note that there is a full time contra hall. For those individuals that might be interested in learning to prompt contras--check out Ed Butenhof's caller clinic on Saturday at 10:30 in West Hall-Rm 6. On Friday from 11 to noon Barbara will be leading an hour long program for kids (ages 5-12) using play-party dances and other fun things. I had hoped to announce that Chuck Prister would be calling the Thursday session but he had to cancel out. We'll miss you, Chuck.

Country Dancers is also teaching clogging (buck and wing style) from 7-8 before each Thursday night CDR dance. Call me for more information.

The New England Folk Dance Festival in Natick, April 22-24 had 16 CDR dancers in attendance. The contra hall was so crowded, callers couldn't tell where the lines were.

Diamond Squares

A big thank you to Bob and Nancy Ellis and Dottie Reed from the entire square dance community for donating their time and proceeds to the Promenader Dance. It was a huge success, well planned and a good time was had by all those attending.

Bob and Nancy will be having a Plus Level Workshop starting Tuesday, May 10th at the Green Lantern Inn from 8:00 to 10:30 p.m. If you want to bridge the gap from Mainstream to Plus dancing, this is the workshop to attend.

Congratulations to Bob and Betty Heindl on the arrival of a new granddaughter. They wear their "Dancing Grandparents" dangles very proudly. Welcome back to Terry Veniskey - she certainly has been missed over the past few weeks and we are glad to see her back dancing again. We are missing Tom and Janice Halladay - we understand they have had a recent series of misfortunes and illness in their family - our thoughts and prayers are with them.

Diamond Squares will be hosting a Fashion Show Dance on May 4th with Dottie Reed cueing.

The Carriage House will be on hand with their usual full display of square dance attire and accessories. This is a good place to come and shop and dance and buy your new outfit for Dance-O-Rama. Don't miss DOR in Brockport on May 7th. Your reporters are chairpersons and we hope to see a good turnout. If you know of a recent graduate, bring them with you.

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers - see you in June's issue.

CARMEN'S COLUMN

Jerry Carmen

In days gone by the clubs would recruit their classes, nurture them step by step, and occasionally have a party dance at which the class and club would dance the evening together. As a rule, the class would dance only once a week (which many consider a big commitment to make) and there was no pressure to do more.

THE LAST GREAT RESOURCE

In recent years, club memberships have generally decreased while the inter-class dances have increased. In the face of declining membership along with increased caller and hall fees, our last great resource is being tapped for revenues - the classes. Maybe individually, the classes are small, but a dance with them all combined can provide a good portion of the club's annual operating expenses. Can it be there is a push to cash in on the enthusiasm of our newest dancers by clubs and callers alike? Are we creating a monster that will cause dancers burnout before graduation? Practically every big dance now includes the classes. Some clubs openly advertise their classes open to people attending other classes, this must make continuity difficult, but read into this what you will. We often see several class-club dances scheduled the same night. I understand the profit motive, but I think most will agree that the uncontrolled way we are rushing dancers into the activity can only be damaging in the long run.

ADVANTAGES

The advantages of extra dancing is obvious - it gives them more practice. Visiting other clubs enables them to meet other people, make new friends, and gives them an idea of the scope of the activity in this area. Hearing a different caller use the same material they have learned in a different way also has its advantages.

DISADVANTAGES

I used to think, the more dancing and different callers a learner was exposed to, the better it would be for him/her. Perhaps this may still be true, but I can also see a potential for discouragement in an uncontrolled environment. First, there is pressure of increasing their commitment beyond which they intended. Second, there is the potential discouragement of being exposed to material which they have not been taught, nor are they ready for. Teaching new material at these dances is depriving the instructor from introducing it in the manner which is intended. Shouldn't the focus of these inter-class dances be to practice the material they have ALREADY learned?

ADDRESSING THE CALLER

Callers are not blameless. They can and do cause great damage. Many dancers are turned off and some drop out after being exposed to callers who use poor judgement in material selection and workshop calls above mainstream, presumably to show how smart they are.

If one of the purposes of enter-class dances is to provide new dancers more practice, let's do just that and stop teaching calls that are new to them. Leave that task to the instructor. We, who have classes, can also help by sticking as closely as possible to the CALLERLAB recommended teaching order. We can then establish a 10-week level, 20-week level, etc.

ADDRESSING THE CLUBS

Let's not encourage people to dance with our classes at random. Advertising your class open to anyone at any time only suggests 'pirating' people from other classes. Besides, it must play havoc with class continuity. Keep your classes closed except in special circumstances. Be careful of scheduling. Check out the date and announce it as early as possible through the "PROMENADER" so as to avoid conflicts. Competing dances in a single night not only reduces attendance at both dances, but creates hard feelings.

A POSSIBLE SOLUTION

Let's let the dancer Federation of clubs (the most logical group) take charge of coordinating inter-class dances. Since nobody wins when we compete - let's cooperate! What about a calander listing all coming inter-class dances in the area distributed to all clubs for the coming season, and only listing one dance on any given night.

EKC-O Squares

May brings spring flowers and most of our friends who have been in the wet south have returned to dance with us. It's nice to see all our friends back with us.

Cliff Bushnell is now home. A call to Esther before stopping by would be in order, though.

EKC-O will be having their summer workshop starting June 1st through August 3rd. This is a good chance for new dancers, or dancers who haven't been coming every week, but would like to get back into dancing and meeting dear friends again, to brush up their dancing toes. Hope to see a lot of new and old friends there.

Chuck Prister (by the time this paper is printed) will have had his triple-by-pass heart surgery. Good luck and hopes that Chuck & Gerry will be back dancing with us soon, are extended from EKC-O Squares.

SPECIAL WELCOME TO NEW GRADUATES

Wowie! Just came back from a Caribbean Cruise. There were fourty couples from Harris Squares and Belles n' Beaus. We went with our caller Art Harris and his lovely wife Vera. Eat! Eat! Eat! Art put on about ten pounds. The only part of him that stayed thin was his throat, which he exercised calling dances aboard ship. Vera is still lovely all over.

We flew to San Juan. It was there that I went to see a Cock-Dance. Only one "couple of chickens" danced at a time. Somebody said that they were fighting but they looked like a normal round dance couple to me.

Our first island stop was Curacao. A Dutch Island with its Floating Market, Floating Bridge and Floating Crap Tables. After the last one you are ready for a Floating Loan!

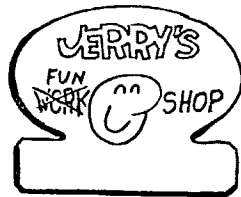

Next port was La Guaira, Venezuela. While some of our group went to Caracas I went with another group to distribute Bibles to children living on the hills at the edge of town. It was going up one of the steep streets that I saw a funeral with people walking in front of the hearse. The hearse hit a bump and the back door opened. The casket slid out, slid down the cobble stone street, right thru the front door of a Drug Store. The lid flew open and the corpse sat up and said "Have you got something to stop this coffin"?

This happened close to Washingtons Birthday soooo I have to tell the truth. The first part about the Bibles is true, but the last part was in Spanish. I don't know what he really said.

Another highlight of our Cruise was the Island of Guadeloupe. This is a French Island and they have a "Club Med" which is a large Inn with a beautiful private beach. What is unique about "Club Med" is that nudism is allowed on part of the beach. This is where people come from all over to air their differences.

At first I couldn't believe my eyes, soooo I went back and took a second look. It was then I thought of what Adam said when he first saw Eve, "What is this, some kind of rib?" and I say...

Thanks Anyway,
Hal Abberger

Spring is in the air, birds are singing, tulips are blooming and as if it isn't enough, Jerry's Funshop looks forward to dancing the 2ndm 3rd and 4th Sundays in May. We meet at the Chili Community Center, Buffalo Road, near Route 259 in West Chili. We dance the A1 level, workshoping A2 calls, and Jerry really provides an interesting and challenging evening of fun. Come and visit us if you are familiar with this level.

Welcome back to Terry Veniskey, after a six-week absence. It's good to have you back, Terry. We miss our regular dancers when they are not with us.

We extend a wish for all mothers to have a very Happy Mother's Day. We also hope to see a lot of you at Dance-0-Rama on May 7th in Brockport. Come and dance at DOR and then let your children spoil you the next day, which is Mother's Day. See you in the June issue.

We are greatly saddened to learn of the death of Phyllis Isaac who had been a member of our club for many years. On March 14 the club danced one tip in memory of Phyllis. She will be greatly missed by us all.

Well, the last episode of Mash, Shogun, The Winds of War and finally The Thorn Birds are all over. Now all of you who took time out to see all those can get back to business of dancing. Our schedule is a little different than originally planned.

Our Hobo dinner has been re-scheduled from April to May 16. Reservations for the dinner must be made and paid for on the 9th of May. We're expecting the usual delicious meal from Edgar and his crew.

Beginning on June 14 we will both change nights to Tuesday and location to the Irondequoit Presbyterian Church on Culver Road and start a brand new class. Singles or couples who want to start learning to dance this summer are welcome to join us in June.

Even ghosts have birthdays, and the Friendly Ghost, better known as Dick Casper, had a birthday in March. With a hefty huff and a mighty puff he blew out all the candles on one of his two cakes and almost singed his beard. We all enjoyed helping him celebrate, and we were glad to have so many guests there to share the fun. Also that night we lost our banner to the Fun Lovin' Squares, and we'll be dropping in on them soon to retrieve it.

The St. Patrick's dance was another evening of good dancing and everyone had a great time. Our thanks to Marg Reynolds and her committee for all the attractive decorations which added a nice festive touch.

We enjoyed putting on a demonstration at Hudson Towers for the senior citizens. They were a very appreciative audience and were so generous with the delicious donuts and coffee afterwards.

There are two special events in May. On the 16th we'll have our Carnival Dance. If you're looking for a good time and good dancing, come on over and join us for this one.

Our Trail End dinner dance will be on the 23rd at the Green Lantern for members only. The happy hour will begin at 6:00, dinner will be at 6:45 and reservations are necessary. We're looking forward to seeing all of our members that night for one last party before the summer workshops begin. Let's have a good turnout.

There will be a new A1 workshop for seventeen weeks beginning May 3rd through August 30th from 8:00 to 10:30. This was very successful last year.

Wayne Westerners

We enjoyed our dancing in March, especially our St. Pat's dance with Chip and Dotty, also the invasion of the Copy Cats March 24th to rescue their "cat" and run off with our "apple". We hope they take as good care of our "apple" as we did of their "cat".

We look forward to our auction on April 14th and class graduation April 28th, also our annual Apple Blossom Dance coming up May 20th at the Williamson High School and our Trail End Dance on May 26th.

We were happy to be a part of the overflowing crowd that attended the Promenader Dance. It is good to know that we all appreciate the Promenader and want it to continue.

IRONDEQUOIT SQUARES

The month of May brings us to the climax of our square dance activities for the spring, and most importantly, it brings us our graduates. Graduation night, with its combination of just the right amount of levity and seriousness, was a big success. Again we welcome our newest members. We are proud of you and hope you will find your club everything you expected. We are brought together by our love of dancing and keep together because of the warm fellowship we experience and the friends we make. We're happy to have you aboard. This also includes Pete and Dottie Robinson, long time friends, whom we were delighted to welcome as members at our dance on April 2nd.

Our dinner at the Shanghai Restaurant followed by a mystery ride and an evening of relaxed dancing was well attended and a great time was enjoyed by all. Thanks to Nelson and Nancy Coco for planning this entertaining evening for us.

Thanks also to guest caller Ron Fotch, for a pleasant evening of dancing on April 30th.

Again a reminder that there will be no dance May 7th because of the Dance-0-Rama. For those still wanting tickets contact Ralph and Pat Menzies.

Our Trail's End Dinner Dance at the Webster Knights of Columbus Club will be June 10th. You may still sign up at the dance May 21st or call the Babcocks', 266-7023, for reservations.

Check the forth coming PROMENADER for the dates of our Pot-Luck Supper-Black-Top Dances in July and August.

Our last dance of the spring before the Trail's End Dance will be May 21st. Do come and enjoy the dancing with us.

Happy dancing this summer!

Tecumseh Squares

Many thanks to Jeff Elmore who called one terrific dance on March 29. His wife Sally did a super job in helping him with some of the Singing Calls.

April 19 was the date for All Singing Calls Night. Bruce did a good job in keeping everyone dancing. Linda and Mike also did a super job in cueing the rounds.

May 24 is graduation for the Tecumseh Squares Class. Good luck to them, they worked hard for this day.
