As the Promenader goes to press for the month of April, we can't help but notice the number of clubs who send in their news without reading the Simplified Key listed with the dance schedule. Callerlab has listed Mainstream and Plus as two separate dance programs. The age-old dilemma of whether you are Mainstream or Plus is up to your individual club officers. Please take note and list your club's program accordingly. You can also use the Simplified Key to denote whether you have a guest caller (National or otherwise), or if you are having a club/class dance. Does your club have rounds 1/2 hour before your regularly scheduled square dance event? Use this Simplified Key for accuracy in reporting your club's dancing schedule.

The Promenader Gang wishes you a very Happy and Blessed Easter and we hope you enjoy this joyous holiday with those you love and cherish! See you all at Dance-O-Rama on May 2nd.

A View From the Square

An article in the February, 1992 issue of American Square Dance, stated, "... we would need to completely do away with the different programs if there is any hope for square dancing." That same month there was also a "level-bashing" letter in the Promenader. To address the inaccuracies in that letter: the Callerlab lists dated 4-11-90, show 50 calls in the Basic Program, an additional 17 calls in the Mainstream Program, and another 26 calls comprise the Plus Program. This comes to a total of 93 calls Plus dancers should know, not the 108 stated in the letter.

That letter encourages Callerlab to, "... start working for sensible programs that promote fun and sociability instead of competition and ill feeling." In attending dances above the Mainstream Program all over the Rochester area since 1968, I have never detected any attitudes remotely resembling competition and ill feeling. There is just as much, if not more, fun and sociability at Shamrock Squares or Teddy Bears as there is at other clubs in the area.

Variety is the delicious spice of both life and square dancing. 14 out of the 26 Federation clubs dance an advertised Plus Program. No one seems to bash round dancing for having Phases I through VI. It is perfectly acceptable for Round cuers at a square dance to have one low level round followed by one high level round, even though as many as fifty percent of the dancers leave the floor for the second round. Similarly, it shouldn't be out of line to have a dance where square dance tips alternate between Mainstream and Plus, or Plus and Advanced.

The letter also falsely claimed that in 1970 there was virtually only one level (whcops, I meant program). But in 1970 in Rochester, there were club level groups, and then harder groups like K. A. Squares and Lilac Squares, and the Challenge Program was offered by Rochester Rollaways at the Greece YMCA, and Bar-Nothings at the Greece Town Hall. Art Harris called tough dances on Grand Island, Tuesday nights at Twirlaways. All these groups had four squares or more at each dance.

My complaint with Callerlab, is that non-callers are not allowed to vote on policies or call lists. I tried to join Callerlab several years ago, but was told that I could join only as a non-voting member. Callerlab has no way of forcing any club or caller to structure dances according to Callerlab lists. Call lists exist so that visiting dancers anywhere in the world will know if they should attend a dance advertised at a certain level.

A club should tell their caller which calls to use, and if he does not comply, then a different caller should be hired. If you don't like the list of calls that your club requires the caller to use, then switch to a different club, or start your own club. Stop bashing other people's inalienable rights to dance the call lists that they enjoy. Live and let live.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In response to the "Letter to the Editor" in the March issue of the Promenader, it was unfortunate that two clubs scheduled a class/club dance the same night. Our club was one and we had the "Hip Boot Boys" and the date chosen back in August of 1991. We did send a notice into the Promenader but we had the wrong address, so it didn't get listed right away. By that time, the other club had theirs listed. Since we had ours already "in the works", we felt we should not change it at that late date.

Right now we are working on a date for our Annual "Sno-Ball Dance" for 1993 and we hope this won't happen again.

We thank everyone who did come to our dance and make it a success. We hope the other club had as successful a dance also.

-Submitted by Sharon Balfour

Ed. Note: The Special Events Calendar was created to eliminate conflicts between club dance schedules and it is unfortunate that two clubs scheduled their club/class dance on the same evening. Perhaps it would be wise when scheduling your Special Event, to consider that some clubs traditionally list their club/class event at the same time every year. To do less than this only diminishes the attendance at both clubs.

MORE ABOUT BLEEDING

It's good to see so many responses to my letter on "Bleeding": it means that people are really interested.

Apparently some missed the major point of the letter. They speak of the need to improve Recruiting and Retention, and then do exactly what I mentioned. They bewail the fact that the competition for people's leisure time is greater, or at least different, from twenty years ago. They study ways to increase recruiting, but don't even think about doing something to hang on to more of the new dancers that they do manage to get into a class.

Not only that, but dancer retention has a strong influence on recruiting. Most dance leaders are aware that over 90% of recruits are brought in by personal contact with enthusiastic dancers---that very point has been mentioned in the letters. Dancers who are three years or more out of class have mined all of the possibilities among their friends and associates, and most of their new friends are already dancers. What it takes to maintain recruiting is new graduates who stay in the activity, and bring along a new group of friends who are a fresh source of recruiting possibilities. The early drop-outs are not only themselves lost to the club, but so are the recruits that they should have brought in.

A Positive Attitude toward square-dance problems is all very well, but not if it makes a person blind to facts. This is another thing that I mentioned previously: a strong tendency for people to believe that they are doing everything exactly right. If things aren't going well, it's not because I might be doing something wrong, but because I'm not trying hard enough, or nobody is willing to help me. Some of you may know the story about the optimistic and pessimistic twin boys who badly wanted a pony for their birthday.... Which of them was deep in wishful thinking, and which saw things as they were?

Some of the letters mentioned variety and challenge as an important value to be found in square dancing. Unfortunately, in many parts of the square-dance world this has come to mean learning whole batches of new calls. A good caller can give dancers enough challenge and variety, with a number of different ways of using the Mainstream calls, to keep most graduates happy and interested for at least two years. And a lot of the new dancers have all the challenge they can handle for a year or so, with developing their dancing skills and learning to do easily all the calls they've been exposed to.

This brings us to the topic of "levels", which word too many people use too easily, without considering the implications. Nobody wants to be thought of, or think of him/herself as, a "low-level" dancer. But, the word "level" is also used to mean the number of calls that a dancer can respond to. The clear implication is that the best dancers are those who "know" the most calls. Not only that, but dancers and clubs don't want to be known as anything before Plus, even if they can do only six or eight calls of the Plus vocabulary. Callerlab says that a Plus dancer is one who is familiar with all of the Plus calls, as well as all of the calls on the Basic and Mainstream lists. It's a matter of some imagined virtue in "having the name", but "the game" isn't important.

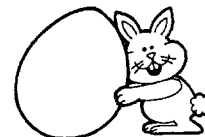

A year or so ago, a couple of callers gave their definition of what makes a good dancer, in the Callerlab magazine "Direction." According to them, a 100% dancer is one who can go from his position in the starting formation of a call to his position in the ending formation without making any mistakes. No mention of styling, of smooth and rhythmic movement to the beat of the music, of coordinating his/her movement with the seven other dancers in the set---just get there, any which way.

In my opinion, this is one of our biggest problems today. Too often, and in too many parts of the country, this is the type of "dancing" taught in the classes, and many learners, after or even before graduation, drop out because they find out that it isn't the fun they were promised when they started the class. The dancers who stay with us are the ones who like it the way it is, and I for one wouldn't think of forbidding them to enjoy whatever kind of dancing they want. But, they should realize that not everyone else is the same as themselves, and would like a different kind of dancing, if they could find it. I believe we would make the activity a lot larger and healthier if we could make room in it for different kinds of dancers.

Another symptom of the problem is, what happens to the learners when they graduate and begin to dance with the club? Do the more experienced dancers welcome them warmly and help them improve their abilities?--let them know that they're not good enough yet to dance with real dancers?--make them learn a whole new bunch of calls in a rush-rush summer course so they can dance with the club in the fall? Most clubs like to think of themselves as a friendly club, but do visiting dancers and their new graduates feel that way? In my opinion, one mark of a friendly club is that it has at least one mixer tip at each regular club dance. Of course, singles' clubs dance mixed most of the time---maybe this is one big reason why they stay healthy.

One last item: I, as a male mature in years, both in life and in dancing, do not like to be called a boy by square-dance callers. I often wonder whether the practice says something about the attitude of a caller toward "his" customers, and whether he really believes the old saying, "The customer is always right."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In answer to A View From the Square in the March Promenader, I just can't resist a reply to this article! Ron Ehrlich really struck a nerve and I couldn't agree more that the majority of dancers would welcome a return to the romantic, exciting atmosphere of the 1800's and I must say that the mode of dress at all the clubs I dance with would substantiate that conclusion.

True, I do however, see the occasional person in street clothes dressed neatly and having just as good a time as anyone who might be appropriately dressed for the occasion. Personally, I spend the greater part of my life in ordinary clothing and really enjoy the chance to put on something special and go out and trip the light fantastic with a lovely partner who has put forth the same effort.

My personal opinion is that anyone engaged in an activity that they enjoy will have more fun and do better at it if they have the right equipment and dress code. However, everyone doesn't feel that way and I will defend to the death the right of any dancer to be comfortable in what they are wearing, as long as they are neat and clean. I truly enjoy dancing and especially the fine people I'm privileged to associate with and participate in a square with. Pretty clothes are nice but, shouldn't we rather be looking for a warm handshake, a happy smile, friendship and the excitement of cooperating with a caller and seven other people interacting together and just plain having fun?

There's been a great deal of talk about stopping the bleeding. Let's not give a few fine individuals the idea that if they don't look like the rest of us, they are not acceptable. This was a free country in the 1800's. Today, everywhere we turn we find rules, regulations, restrictions, regimentation and Big Brother. Let's not bring that into square dancing and create more bleeding. Just come with a smile on your face, knowing that your friends are delighted to see and participate with you for two or three happy, fun-filled hours.

Put On Your Dancing Shoes FOR DANCE-O-RAMA

CINDY WHITAKER

Cindy began calling in 1980 when she attended Cal Golden's Caller College in Hot Springs, AK on a full scholarship. While attending Quincy College in Illinois, she became the caller for a Mainsteam club.

In 1985 she helped organize and became club caller for several clubs in Quincy, including the Bachelor and Bachelorettes; a Plus club and an APD Plus and Advanced 1 and 2 group. She has recorded on the Eagle Records label, and in 1988 decided to travel full time.

Cindy has been a featured caller for the International Singles Festival in Canada and also for the Colorado Singles Festival. She has called at several state and National square dance conventions. Currently, Cindy calls in 14 states.

On a personal note, Cindy has two daughters and a very supportive husband, known affectionately as "Mr. Mom".

CARMEN'S COLUMN

Talking with your Club Caller

The club board of directors has had a meeting. A number of items have been discussed and agreed on what they would like the club caller to do or not to do at the dances. The vice president is appointed to approach the caller on these points. In between tips at the following dance he corners the caller and says, "At the board meeting last night we decided we wanted....", and proceeds to enumerate various items.

This is absolutely the wrong procedure, but I have seen it done many times. Do you want a good club to caller relationship? Do you want the caller to feel he is an important part of the club? If you do, NEVER talk to the caller about important issues during the dance. There are two things wrong with this. First, the caller has many things on his mind and you do not have his full attention. Second, the caller might have a very good reason why he does NOT want to abide by your decisions and you have left him no opportunity for discussion. Also, think of your feelings when you are approached with decisions that have already been made that affects a job you think you are doing pretty well ... especially if you think the decision is wrong!

If you consider the caller an important part of the club and you feel the things you are asking him to do are of some importance, then discussion should take place in an atmosphere where there is time to explain your wants and explore other ways of accomplishing them - this is NEVER during the dance time. I think all clubs should have a time where the board and caller get together periodically, discuss the state of the club and exchange information as how to improve the club for all members. If an urgent topic comes up, a get-together over a cup of coffee at a local restaurant after the dance is appropriate. If this is not convenient, what about scheduling a special meeting at another time for this purpose? There is certainly nothing wrong with inviting the caller to your next board meeting.

The discussion should start out, for example, "We have discussed some matters and have some suggestions. We'd like to know what you think about them...", not, "We had a meeting and this is what we want you to do...." The latter has the air of dictating and is not conducive to the spirit of cooperation you want to inspire. Like it or not, callers are people with feelings too.

Many dancers are afraid of offending the caller by being critical. Of course you may be offending if your approach attacks the person and not the problem. All callers want to do a better job and all callers want to please the people they are calling for. If your suggestions are aimed towards what he can do to make it a better dance, he should not be offended. It is better to bring these things out in the open so they can be discussed. No matter how much he agrees or disagrees with the outcome, at least he should respect the fact he was given the opportunity to participate in the discussion.

RON AND REE RUMBLE

Ron and Ree Rumble reside in Lakehurst NJ and have been cuing and teaching round dancing since they met in 1973 at a square dance. They currently teach for two round dance clubs and are cuers for three square dance clubs.

They have been featured as staff members at many festivals, weekends, and special dances throughout many states. They are past treasurers of the Delaware Valley Round Dance Teachers Assoc. and are members of Roundalab. They are ballroom students and study ballroom dancing in order to enhance their round dance knowledge. The Rumbles are also choreographers.

As if this isn't enough to keep them busy, they are the parents of two sons, who happen to be Honor Roll students. Ron is an assistant bank manager and Ree is a payroll specialist for their local school district.

A Hearty "welcome" is extended to all round dancers to attend our monthly Saturday dance on April 11th. All phases from II to VI are programmed. During the many years I have been involved with the round dance community, I feel that these social parties are what whetted my appetite for a more challenging level of dancing. We all owe Mark and Marlene a huge "debt of gratitude" for continuing with this format.

With the Spring season we look forward to the Dance-O-Rama on May 2nd sponsored by the Rochester Area Federation. Please plan on attending; I am sure you will enjoy the teaching and cuing of Ron and Ree Rumble. Remember, every time you dance to a different round dance leader, you come away with a new perspective. This is the best way I know to improve your technique and styling.

Until next month, keep dancing.

ROUND TOWNERS

Guess What?

It's hard to believe, but Mark and Marlene have been back with us for four weeks, and our little three-week void the latter part of February and the first Sunday in March are little more than a dim memory. We all missed them sorely during that time, but we're all gratified to see them back, looking all tanned and healthy after their happy honeymoon. Welcome home, Mark and Marlene!

The club membership is increasing and we want to extend an enthusiastic welcome to all of our new members as well as those of you who will be joining us in the near future. It is truly exciting and perhaps even a little amazing to observe the rapid progress that people seem to make at our Sunday night dances. It surely speaks volumes for the ability of our Rochester area round dancers, and it is a testimonial to the professionalism and teaching ability of all of our fine area cuers. Hooray for all of you! I sincerely doubt there is one area in New York with the concentration of expertise that we have in our own backyard.

Take advantage of it! Our Saturday Night Round Dance Party on March 28th was well attended and most enjoyable. There's another one coming up on April 11th. Look for an elegant dinner dance after the middle of May. Exact date to be announced. But most of all, remember Sunday nights when we get prepared to enjoy to the fullest all the other beautiful dances available in our bountifully blessed Rochester area.

Boots 'N Slippers

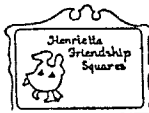

We hope everyone enjoyed our St. Patrick's dance. Did you ever see so much green? Pizza for a snack was certainly a nice surprise. Thanks to Robin and Dave Kepler for all your time and efforts each week with refreshments.

Welcome to new club members: Pauline and Joe Piccirillo; Lois and Jerry Scroger; and Elaine and Bob Stirk. These new members are from our refresher course. By dancing with them, you would never know that they hadn't danced in a number of years. If you know anyone who hasn't danced in a while, please let them know about our refresher course with Mike Callahan at 7:00 P.M. before club dances. We are planning to have the refresher course again in the fall.

Bob Meagher has done a great job with our class. They dance at least one tip with the club each night, and you can't tell which are the class couples, they do so well.

We are looking forward to our "SOUTH MEETS NORTH" dance and ice cream social on April 24th. Jim Cosman, formerly of the Hilton area, will call along with Mike. We hope people who know and/or have danced with Jim will join us. Brian and Cindy Adams will be cuing rounds. (See our ad in this issue.)

Henrietta Friendship

Hopefully by the time you are reading this issue of the Promenader, spring is upon us and everyone is enjoying the beautiful sunny days (the weather is cloudy and no sun whatsoever as I write this article).

First of all, we wish to thank everyone who attended the President's Ball on February 21st--a good time was had by over 100 dancers. During April, we will be dancing to a guest caller on the 15th--Ben McGilvery. We have regular club dances on the 8th and 29th. No dances on either April 1st or April 22nd--the school where we dance is closed on these dates.

Hope everyone has a great Easter/Spring Break. We do have a short Officer's Meeting scheduled for April 8th before our dancing begins.

Information Reporter,

Dancing Shadows

Dancing Shadows will continue to meet from 7:30 to 10:00 PM every Monday evening, at least for the month of April. We have had numerous requests to return to the 8:00 to 10:30 schedule during the summer months, and we are considering resuming that schedule as of May 4th. Watch for the final decision in the May issue.

We dance at the United Methodist Church of West Webster, 570 Old Ridge Road. The level is Phase II with some Phase III (fun level).

We welcome all dancers to join us and hope to see you soon.

Don't forget....DOR is just a month away. Hope to see you there.

P.S. On April 13th, we will not be meeting at the usual location. At this time, an alternate location has not been selected. Please call us in advance if you need information about April 13th.

Genesee Dancers

As I'm writing this for the April issue of the Promenader, the snow banks are still here and it's still cold. By the time you receive this, hope there will be robins galore in all our yards and a whole lot warmer too.

Have you ever dreamed of having a full house on all your dance nights? Well, we have had that the last several months. It's been wonderful to see so many of our own dancers attend and so many visitors enjoying themselves. We hope we never wake up!!

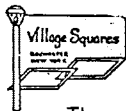

March 26th was the night we graduated 9 couples into the wonderful world of square dancing. They are: Jane and Al Manning, Fred and Lois Allen, Jon and Priscilla Anderson, Judy and Bob Berray, Kay and George Marsden, Helen White and Joe Kashmer, Bob and Betty McKay, Royce and Jackie Rogers, Jo and Don Kessel. The class coordinators were Trudy and Jack Cayo. We also want to thank all the angels who helped them through the many calls that they have to learn. All of our class members danced with the club members at our St. Patrick Dance and they all did very well.

Our St. Patrick's Day Dance was another pot luck dinner for the members, and an evening of dancing for all the members and visitors. The hall was decorated in green and white, with many balloons and shamrocks. We were all Irish for an evening and full of Blarney too. Kris and Art Martz and their committee did a beautiful job of decorating the dance hall.

The Genesee Dancers are keeping busy planning a lot of things in the months ahead. Please plan on joining us for many fun-filled dance nights. We will keep you dancing and smiling all evening!

Village Squares

The dancers and the diners are unanimously in agreement that our Valentine's Day dinner dance at Glendoveer's was a success. Hints are floating about that another party there would be in order.

We are in our new dancing home--at the First Presbyterian Church in East Rochester. Our first night there, March 11th, we celebrated with a Flashlight Dance--just so we wouldn't forget last year's ice storm. Didn't the fading beams of the flashlights remind you of getting about our darkened homes?

The Village Squares class of 1992 has been practicing diligently. Now the time has come for them to share their abilities with the club and other classes. Your presence is requested on Saturday, April 4th, at the Penfield Library and Community Center, 1985 Baird Road at 8:00 pm. Will Herzog will be keeping the squares in motion.

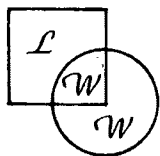

Springtime has come. Can our annual Hobo Dance be far behind? Of course not--just in time for the tax man! Dig out those costumes and come for an evening of fun dancing and other entertainment.

In the event you thought we weren't dancing on April 22nd just because schools were closed for Easter vacation, take heart. Our dancing space is available and the caller's turntable will be turning. Come with your dancing shoes on.

Just because we are still thinking about the remnants of snow is no reason to ignore summer coming around the corner. Everyone has to come and congratulate the new graduates on May 13th. Trail End Dinner Dance will be right behind. Watch this space for events of the spring and summer.

Triggers

To all who attended our 9th Annual Bunny Hop, thanks a lot. We hope that you all had a good time. We sure loved having you join us and the Hip Boot Boys for a fun evening.

Welcome back all of the Triggers Snow-Birds. It sure will be nice dancing with our old friends again.

Vice Presidents John and Paulette Bo have returned from the Magdalen Islands, Canada after a great adventure of helicoptering out to the ice floes to see and pet the Harp Seal pups. What an experience.

Don't forget our April 14th Ice Cream Social. That's the biggie where, for a donation of $3.00 a couple, you get to dance to Bud Hands and cool off with an ice cream sundae. Don't miss it.

Copy Cats

With the daffodils pushing up since late February, Spring has to be very close.

We are having a wonderful time collecting banners this year. Our wall has stayed very colorful. We especially enjoy having you come back to collect your banner. If you missed our regular dances in March, we have two more coming up in May to retrieve your banner.

I hope you are ready to enjoy the gourmet deserts the men are providing on April 11th, and get those treasures for the house and family at our Swap-Around. This will be another opportunity for your class to "bone up" for their graduation and see the kinds of fun we have at dances. Mike Herne and George Burch will be doing their best to give you an entertaining evening.

President Brad Higgins is masterminding the mystery dance scheduled for April 25th. We will meet in the parking lot of the Church of the Good Shepherd, corner of Rt. 250 and State Street in Webster at 7:00 PM.

It looks like Dance-O-Rama is shaping up for another wonderful day on May 2nd.

What wonderful quilters we have. I wish all of you could see the finished product. It is going to be a work to behold. Many thanks to all who contributed and especially to those who helped put it all together.

For your weekend dancing pleasure, remember the Copy Cats every second and fourth Saturday.

Wayne Westerners

Our club has been busy this winter and our new schedule has worked out very well, in spite of sickness and people going to Florida. We have had good attendance--thanks to lots of welcome guests--including the Web Spinners, who took our banner. A good excuse to visit them again!

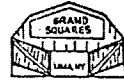

Don't forget, Wayne Westerners, there is no dance on April 17th and on April 24th, we are having a Mystery Ride.

And now it is beginning to look like spring and feel like spring, and that means it is time to think of spring-like things, such as Dance-O-Rama, Graduation, and the Apple Blossom Dance. So mark your calendars and "Think Pink"!

See you on the dance floor.

Lima Grand Squares

Lima's club decision to cancel our dance on February 21st and go to the President's Ball in Henrietta was a good one. The dance was outstanding in every way--attendance, dancing, calling and cuing, and good, good food. Thanks to the Henrietta Friendship Squares for hosting a wonderful dance.

Several couples in our club have recently returned to dancing after long absences due to injuries and illnesses. We were hit hard by flu bugs and other even more serious disabilities. We welcome the recovered back, and look forward to seeing others in April who are still, as we write this, "on the mend".

We will be celebrating the return of spring with a fashion show at 8:00 pm before our dance on April 3rd. The Carriage House is providing square dance clothing and accessories, and all are welcome. Dancing starts at 8:30.

On the 24th of April, Bob Ellis will call and cue for us, and we are all looking forward to dancing to him. The other Fridays in April, we will enjoy dancing to Gary Bubel's calling and Alice's cuing, and hope many of our friends from other clubs will plan to join us one of those evenings. Happy Spring!!

Cloverleaf Squares

We finally put the winter behind us, as we are enjoying the warmer weather of spring. Our winter picnic turned out to be a huge success. Everybody had a good time.

We had a large group of people to attend the King of Prussia weekend. We had a lot of fun and are looking forward to going again next year.

The class graduation is scheduled for April 26th. The club is planning a dinner for them. Members of the club are asked to bring a dish to pass and donate three dollars. Class members are free but everyone is required to bring their own table service. The dance starts at 8:00 P.M.--this will be a class/club dance.

Cloverleaf Squares is always busy with new activities, so please check our information number at any time for information and specific details on all our latest events.

Belles 'N Beaus

The Memorial Dance for Art Harris was well attended by the Belles 'N Beaus and many other area clubs.

A round of applause to Mike Harris and the dancers who did the square dance demonstration for the Autumn Lane School PTA and families.

Congratulations to Frank and Florence Whitty, Ed and Irene Zabelny, and Art and Irene McMichael on their Golden Anniversaries.

The class Valentine's Pot Luck Dinner/Dance was a huge success. Our Social Directors did a superb job in decorating the hall. Many thanks to the people who prepared the outstanding meal with all the trimmings.

I bet Ilene Wasnock has some good stories to tell about her trip abroad to sunny Italy. She visited the Eternal City of Rome and the beautiful Isle of Capri.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mike Harris and family for the loss of their mother, Vera Harris. She will be greatly missed.

Our caller and cuer, Jerry and Betty Carmen and their family, vacationed in Florida during the school holiday. Thank you, Jim Landen, for calling for us during their absence.

We're looking forward to guests in April. Triggers and Village Squares will join us on the 6th and Copy Cats and Victor Swing-A-Longs on April 20th.

Kate Simmons wasn't a "Lilac" but we enjoyed her dancing with us and we do miss her.

April 13th and 27th will be our regular dance evenings with Jerry calling the squares and Betty cuing rounds. Our class dances from 6:30 to 8:00 P.M. and the club enjoys the rest of the evening until 10:30 P.M. at the Penfield Baptist Church, Rte. 441, 1862 Penfield Rd.

Thank you, Bob and Jean Smith, for a really nice Valentine's Dance.

On January 31st, along with Mike Herne, we had a guest caller, Tom Turcott. It was an All Singing Call evening. Everyone had a great time. We hope Tom and his wife Karen will come and visit us again.

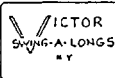

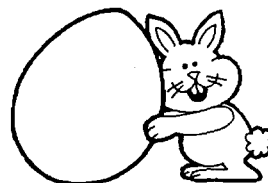

Friday, April 10th will be our graduation for our new class. Always a fun evening.

We would like to welcome our new Board for 1992-1993. Presidents: Arnie and Marian Read; Vice Presidents: Don and Lin Kwart; Secretaries: Ralph and Velma Bodensteiner; Treasurers: Larry and Shirley Matthews. 1st Board: Tom and Sunday Hyder; 2nd Board: Nick and Fran Haldoupis; Federation: Bob and Jean Smith; Social Directors: Bruce and Barb Kahler.

Victor Swing-A-Longs

Our class is coming along great. Many thanks to the caller, Leonard Kmiecik. On April 9th we're having a night of "Special" dancing with Jerry Carmen--"special" could mean surprises!

We're still waiting for some clubs to come after their banners. Do we have yours or are you next on our list? Tecumseh Squares has a beautiful banner adorning our walls every Thursday, as does Copy Cats.

Hope everyone we invited in March enjoyed themselves. For May 21st, we are making plans for an ice cream social. Come and join us if you're in our area on the Thursday evenings listed.

Friendship Squares of Geneva

Our Valentine's Day Heart Dance was a great success, raising $114.00 which was sent to the American Heart Association. Thank you to all who contributed to the Silent Auction we had for this worthy cause.

In April we raise money for cancer at our class-club dance and call it our CCC Dance. We hope you will bring several carloads of class dancers to West Street School on April 10th at 8:00 P.M. for calling by our own Dick Schweitzer. It is good practice for them and fun to meet other class people this way. All income will be donated to the Cancer Society, and even Geneva club dancers will pay an entry fee this evening. Sometimes the caller and cuer donate their fees as well. See directions in our ad.

Finally, on April 24th we will dance in WATERLOO at LaFayette School on Inslee Street because our usual site is not available this evening. Directions: From traffic light at intersection of Main (Routes 5 & 20) and Virginia Streets (the middle of downtown), go east about four streets to Inslee Street and turn left (North). The school is a ways up on the left, not terribly far. After all, Waterloo isn't all that big to begin with! See you!

Circul-8-tors

If it's April, that means it's time for showers and flowers, and also time for the Circul-8-tors to return to Penn Yan for several spring dances. The first is on Sunday, April 26th, at 2:00 P.M., at the Penn Yan Grange Hall on outer Elm Street (Rte. 54A). Once again Jerry Carmen will be calling Plus level squares and Betty Carmen will be leading square dance rounds.

The highlight of the afternoon will be the annual Silent Auction with a variety of different items available for bidding. So bring some of your knick-knacks and other semi-valuable items that someone else may find to be valuable enough to make a painless donation to the club treasury. The proceeds help to underwrite our annual picnic in August. Incidentally, baked goods always go over well with the bidders, so feel free to bring some home-baked cookies, brownies, or even fudge for others to enjoy!

Our fall trip to Branson and the Ozarks is booked solid, and there is a growing waiting list. This has proven to be one of our most popular trips ever, and was completely sold out within 45 days of the presentation at the January dance.

Traveling as a group is just one of the many reasons why joining our fun group makes good sense. If you would like to know some of the other reasons, then motor on down to Penn Yan on a lovely Sunday afternoon (the 26th), and dance with a real friendly group of people!

Promenading B's

With the APRIL showers come the MAY flowers, which will help brighten up our dancing spirits. February's highlight was our Valentine's Day Party, with class/club twirling to the music of Bob Schlenker and Betty on rounds. It was a fun night, what with choosing a King and Queen to reign over festivities--lots of good refreshments and pretty decor. Our March special dance was the BLACK LIGHT annual dance with so many couples swinging their partners and enjoying the company of so many other clubs. We certainly appreciate your patronage, and do feel free to visit the Beehive any time. The welcome mat is always out. Thanks to our committee who helped make this so successful.

Expect that the Snow-birds will be returning soon from their winter-havens in the south and adding to our numbers--we are missing them. Our club is planning a REUNION DANCE for May 8th, inviting many former members of the Bees for a gala celebration. It will be a good time to renew acquaintances and see old friends, and to catch up on their changing life happenings.

We wish all square dancers out there a very HAPPY EASTER and hope to see y'all at the DOR.

Twinkle Shoes

St. Patrick's Day found us with the "wearin' of the green" at our Thursday afternoon dance.

We are at Westridge Senior Center on Chesterton Road, where our cuer George Burch keeps us going at a good pace.

We're learning new dances, experimenting with "Latin Rhythm" and reviewing the Classics. This may sound like all work and no play, but that's far from the truth. We have lots of laughs, mostly at ourselves, but sometimes at our other dancing friends, but it's all in fun--the name of the game at "Twinkle Shoes".

Spring is at our back door and our thoughts are on our friends returning from their winter break.

If a break is what you would like, come down to the Center--we'll be there and we like to see new faces and make new friends.

Batavia Silver Stars

One of the most welcome signs of spring is the return of our snowbird friends from the South. It will be great to see them again at our dances. April showers bring May flowers and hopefully many other club guests to our Batavia Silver Star dances.

On April 6th, we will have "Pie Nite" at BOCES, which is a delight to all our male dancers. We will be dancing at the Genesee Country Mall on April 13th and 20th; then back at BOCES on the 27th.

May you all have a Blessed Easter!

Cayuga Cut-Ups

On February 21st there were 31 Cayuga Cut-Ups who had the time of their life dancing with numerous other clubs at the President's Ball given by the Henrietta Friendship Squares. Congratulations to them for the warm welcome, fine foods, and unique decorations. This was enjoyed by all.

Our bowling in honor of Groundhog Day was a success. There was fun and pizza coming out of our ears. Some of us took time out from eating to bowl a few. There was a rumor about a man in a hat that walked into the ladies room by mistake? Ray saw it happen first-hand. So he can fill you in on the details.

For our Class-Club Valentine's Party, Lois Vanderlinde outdid herself. The decorations were simple and elegant. Everyone wore red and white. Who thought it possible there could be that many different shades of red?

In March Jerry Carmen was our guest caller. Our Spring Fling with Mike Conning and Dottie Reed is getting closer. Watch for our ads real soon.

Glass Slippers

Spring is here! On April 1st, we will have our ICE CREAM SOCIAL/APRIL FOOL'S DANCE. This event will be a class/club dance. We will definitely have a 20-foot-long ice cream sundae (I can taste it already). Will we have April Fool surprises? Who knows? Certainly not me. I do know we will have a fantastic evening--so come and join us for an evening of dancing and gr-r-eat refreshments.

Our Sadie Hawkins Dance was a fun evening for all who attended. The ladies really took over for the entire evening. We had some "special" tips, including a tip with the ladies and the men switching places. A big "Thank You" and a hug too, to our guest caller, Mike Herne and our cuer, Nancy Fincher.

Coming up in May we will have a Trail's End/Pot Luck Supper. Look for further information in next month's Promenader.

Silver Squares

We are happy for Mabel Wordingham that she was able to spend a few weeks with her daughter in Maryland. They also spent some time in Virginia. Silver Squares are making plans for parties from now into Summer. The first--a "Luau"--is being worked on for April 27th. May will bring another "Ice Cream Sundae-Monday" on May 18th. They are always fun because everyone forgets calories and just enjoys every spoonful. June is our picnic--we have our shelter reserved at Hamlin State Park. Hopefully we will have as good weather and as much fun as last year.

At this writing it is still cold and there is snow on the ground--but just planning summer events makes it tolerable.

Country Twirlers

We have some nice things to look forward to this month. Bob Ellis and the Libertis will be doing the honors for us on April 4th. Gary and Alice will entertain us on the 11th. April 25th will be the big day for our Graduating Class.

Don't forget DANCE-O-RAMA on Saturday, May 2nd.

Finger Lakes Squares

Welcome, Signs of Spring! Just what we've been waiting for.

Your reporters have been off to Florida, soaking up a little sun and having a good time, so we are not up on all the latest news. We'll catch up next time.

Support the Dance-O-Rama in May and sign up for the New York State Festival. The campout flyers will soon be flying. Come on down to Geneva and try our A2 club.

Happy Easter.

Shooting Stars

Winter is Gone!!!!!! The month of March saw our caller, Mike Herne, making numerous appearances across New York State with his St. Patrick's Day buddies--Guilhooley O'Toole (a leprechaun) and Seamus (pronounced Shame-us) O'Hare (an Irish rabbit). We at Shooting Stars wish to thank the folks in Penn Yan, Webster, Brockport, Lima, and Buffalo for putting up with him(them).

If for some reason you missed our Couch Potato Dance (and a lot of people did), you won't want to miss our April Special. Think for a moment of that old song "Tho April showers may come your way, they bring umbrellas, on April 28th." That's right!!! We're having an umbrella dance and it's B.Y.O.P. (Bring Your Own Parasol). It is a get-together for new folks, new grads, almost grads, and "old timers". There will be NO PLUS calls at all. We hope to use this dance as a sort of tune-up for Dance-O-Rama. Along with our usual hi-jinks, we will walk through any calls that seem to present problems to the new dancers.

The rest of April will see the club and visitors dancing Plus, Plus, Plus! When is the last time you had tandem squares, or 6 couple squares? Mike slips these in a couple times each month, for both variety and for challenge. Try a Relay the Deucey with 6 couples...FUN!???

On a more somber note, our condolences to Mike Harris on the passing of his mother and to Len Kmiecik on the passing of his grandmother. Our thoughts are with you.

Finishing up, we hope to see all of you at D.O.R. on May 2nd. Everything starts at 1:00 P.M. and keeps going until 11:00 that night. Come for the whole day or just part of it, BUT COME and enjoy the fun!!!!!!

Oooooo!!!!!! The bank teller forgot a couple of important items. Keep track of our schedule this month. It is Earth Week time in the Greece schools, and it is Easter vacation time as well. We wish all the best of holidays and the meaning of the season. The other item is our sincere congratulations and best wishes to Mark and Marlene Thone. They finally tied the knot on Feb. 15th. If they ever get back from their honeymoon, be sure to congratulate them.

Final thought..a poem from Veronica Elizabeth..."Snow falls; drip, drop; O dear, another flop; It's raining outside!.....Think about it!!!!!!

C U in a square.

Tecumseh Squares

Thanks to all the fantastic work of Andy and Marge Hamlin and their committee, the Mid-Term Ball was a howling success. The rainbows and the Bluebirds of Happiness brightened up the otherwise drab big hall. The club thanked Mike and Linda Liberti for their cuing in the past and wished them well as they prepare to leave for Arizona. This was the last dance that they are scheduled to cue for us.

A lot of planning is going on these days as Mirf "too tall" Manning, her chief chicken Jack, and their committee are busy getting things ready so that all their favorite chickens will attend the Spring Swing on April 24th. This is a class level dance and we hope to see a good number of future dancers attend to show us how well they are doing. More planning (but this is of a devious nature) is going on as Mother Nature and Georgeous George Shaw are getting ready for Fling '92. It looks like Una goofed with the planning dinner menu as everyone brought desserts--just remember folks, that it's not nice to fool with Mother Nature.

We recently danced at St. John's Home and the Nortonian Nursing Home and even though it was "warm" dancing, it was well worth it to see the smiles on the faces of the residents. Thanks to those who took the time to brighten up the lives of these folks: Tom Turcotte, who called for us, and also the tireless staff workers who devote their time to helping the residents. You won't know what you're missing until you join us at a nursing home. So the next time you hear us asking for help, please volunteer to go.

We extend our sympathy to the Lustik family on the recent death of Carlotta's mother and also to caller Mike Harris on the death of his mother.

We are not scheduled to dance on Good Friday, April 17th, so make a note of that. Have a Happy Easter and we'll see you on the dance floor.
